

ACADEMIC CURRICULUM
SHORT PROFILE
RAFFAELLA COLOMBO

RAFFAELLA COLOMBO Architect.

She lives in Milan and Copenhagen. Member of the Italian Architects Association in Milan, Italy. Graduated at Politecnico di Milano with a final thesis on Landscape Architecture. She has been teaching Landscape Architecture – Discipline ICAR 15- at the School of Architecture at Politecnico of Milan since 1991 and is currently professor at the academic course Landscape Architecture, at the School of Architecture ;professor in Landscape Design at the School of Design and Visiting professor for intensive modules in Urban Landscape Design in Copenhagen at KEA- Copenhagen School of Design and Technology- She has taken part in stages in Australia, Indonesia, India, Mexico, Colombia and Chile studying the history of ancient gardens, the local cultures, their identities and the architecture of contemporary public spaces. Participated to University workshops on planning urban public spaces as Team Leader and member of university teaching staff in Denmark, Italy, Canada, England, Serbia, Spain, Chile. She has ongoing strong relations with several universities all over the world. In 2010 she founded the multidisciplinary researching group Architetti InQuieti focusing on studying public urban spaces. Selected in various international competitions and juries such as in 2015 as a Member of the scientific committee for Milan Expo Landscape Architecture Awards, in 2016 and 2017 as a Member of the international Jury –Brand and Landscape Award- with CNA, the National Council of Architects, the Milan Architects association, Triennale di Milano and Paysage. Promoter of university exhibitions, study trips and events. She collaborates in Chile with German del Sol, national prize in Architecture and writes for cultural magazines about landscape architecture. She is correspondent for the international magazines Paysage-Topscape and ANANKE- the University magazine directed by Professor Marco Dezzi Bardeschi. Selected in 2014 by the Milan Architects Association as Archi-writer, during BookCity Milan, for the book Paesaggi di Fuoco. Architetture Vive. She is university lecturer, author and poet.